

JEFF ANDREW SIMPSON has been playing Jazz on the Atlanta Music scene for over thirteen years after arriving from Central Florida in 1998. He has played with the finest jazz musicians the city of Atlanta has to offer in a variety of musical settings. Here pianist Simpson performs a wonderful mix of jazz and pop that will appeal to a broad base of listeners. A set will feature standards in the Swing, Latin, and Contemporary styles, sprinkled with vocals in the style of Harry Connick Jr. and Frank Sinatra. He also plays an extensive list of pop tunes from the writings of Lennon/McCartney, Billy Joel, Sting, Elton John and others.
